Personal profile

I am a dedicated Fine Art student at Staffordshire University with ambitions to pursue teaching, curating, and eventually develop my own art-focused business. I have a strong eye for detail and consistently produce work to a high professional standard. I am keen to take on opportunities that will broaden my skills, deepen my artistic practice, and support my development within the creative industry. Passionate about all forms of art and expression, I am motivated, adaptable, and ready to contribute to a dynamic creative environment.
